

DR SYBIL SEOKA

Sybil Seoka is a pharmacist with a Ph.D. in Pharmacy Administration from the University of Illinois – Chicago, USA. She has experience in hospital pharmacy and academia as well as over 40 years in the pharmaceutical and medical device industry, twenty of these being in stoma and wound care.

She has served as Deputy Registrar of the Medicines Control Council (MCC) and participated in the establishment of the South African Health Products Regulatory Authority (SAHPRA) which replaced the former as the regulator. She has also served as the chairman of SAMED and as president of the Pharmaceutical Society of South Africa (PSSA).

She is an Honorary Life Member of the PSSA and the South African Pharmaceutical Students Federation, and a Fellow of the Institute of Directors South Africa (IoDSA). She serves on several boards including being the current chairman of the Professional Provident Society Holdings Trust (PPS) board.

She is currently the Managing Director of the family-owned medical device company distributing advanced wound and stoma care products.

Sybil is married with two sons. She is also a keen golfer, but do not ask her what her handicap is.

She embraces life-long learning and is driven by personal values of integrity and diligence.
