

Professional Biography – Krish Pather

Krish Pather is the Managing Director of MediKredit, a leading healthcare technology and pharmaceutical benefit management organisation. A seasoned pharmacist by training, he brings deep expertise in pharmaceutical benefit management, medicine risk management, and the application of evidence-based medicine principles.

Over the past two decades, Krish has played a pivotal role in shaping South Africa's healthcare landscape through the development and implementation of advanced coding and classification systems for medicines and medical devices. Under his leadership, MediKredit's NAPPI Division has evolved to meet the dynamic needs of stakeholders across the healthcare sector.

In addition to his executive role, Krish currently chairs the industry's NAPPI Advisory Board, where he continues to guide national standards and foster collaboration across the healthcare ecosystem.